

Response from John Yeutter

Mr. Fritze and Mr Brown:

Thank you for your request for financial information.

One of my core values is to seek transparency from the government to its citizens. Because of this, I am pleased to attach a voluntary disclosure of limited personal financial information.

I believe that this document provides all the information you have requested, other than tax returns. I am not attaching tax returns because the complexity of those forms would obscure information that is clearly presented in this disclosure.

Please let me know if I can provide you with any other information.
